Reports to the Republican State Convention.

The Majority Report Considers It Suicidal to Put Out a Straight Republican Ticket.

this morning. The Grimes county sideration:

Resolved, that the Republican party of the state of Texas, in convention assembled, fa-vor and resomment the exemption from ta-tion of all homestesds of the value of $220.

While waiting for the reports of the committee on permanent organization and platform the convention was entertained by a number of speakers on the subject of the propriety of making nominations, at the close of which the following resolution by DeBruhl of Galveston was adopted:

Resolved. That it is the sense of this convention that to make out a straight-out its-publican nomination for stars officers it independent a state officers in the coming state election, would be suicidal to the interests of the Republican party and would also be a losing of votes to the national tickst.

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows:
Your committee on permanent organization beg leave to report that we recommend the re-election of the present efficers, namely: Hon. A. J. Rosenthal, chairman: Lock McDaniel, secretary: Henry Koch, John Bass, Frank J. Smith and W. M. Bamberg sergeants-at-arms. sergeants-at-arms.

sergeants-at-arms.

A communication was read from the Republicans of Newton county which stated that they were for G. W. Jones for governor and Tom itsesell for attorney-general, first, last and all the time. Applause.] Referred to the committee on resolutions. A long address from the Republicans of Mitchell county was read, which stated that out Republicans ticket, and contended that if the Republicans held together the sentiment which was prevalent in this portion of the state was that if a coalition was made with the Greenbackers and Independents Ireland would be defeated by 15,000° majority. [Applause.] E. J. Davis of Galveston moved that the address be accepted as representing the Republicans of the state. Vigorous oppositions of the state. Vigorous opposition was made to this and amendment was offered to refer it to the committee on resolutions. On a vote the chair.

Out Republican ticket, and contended that if the Republicans held together they would have the state in four years. He said:

"LET THE DOO WAS THE TABLE this once. If you are determined to indoorse Jones do it, but you will split the party. You cannot compel as to vote for Jones and we won't do it. It is a question of principle, and if we split you will find out which end is right all the big coanciles instructed for a straight ticket."

The Minority Report Demands a Full Ticket With Men Who Represent Republicanism.

The faction to adopt the address was withdrawn and quiet again released.

The report of the committee on platform was then heard, they having inished their deliberation.

To the Hon. A. J. Resentbal, chairman of the state Republican convention: Your committee beg leave to report the following as their action against nominating a state ticket, your committee is of the opinion that it is injudicious and unprecedented at this late day to place a state ticket in the field, and recommend that the Republicans aid all Independent candidates for state offices favorable to the feel owing residutions for your committee to their consideration:

MINORITY REPORT.

MINORITY REPORT.

Messra, F. L. Clerves, J. W. Bradshaw, and Horace Welch presented the following minority report:

MR. CHAIRMAN—In behalf of the minority we desire to present the fol-lowing resolutions:

Inwing resolutions:

Whereas, the Republican party of Texas recognizes the natural lights of every american citizen to cast his vote according to the dictates of this swin consideres, and recognizing the fact that the failure of this convention to place in nomination for the different offices to be filled in the state such men as represent principles in barmony with the fa-publican party will deprive a large number of clusters of this right and privilege, and recogniting the fact that the dignity of the Republican party of Texas descands that a full state ticket, composed of near who represent its principles, be placed before the people, and recognizing the fact that Blaine and Logan are representative men, therefore be it. Resoured, that this convention do pince in nomination a full state ticket and that the delegates here assembled pickgo themesives not to support any candidates for state offerce who will not pludge themselves to support the Republican national nominers.

The report was bailed with obsers and hisses, and then Hon Jack Evans moved its adoption. It was seconded amidst an uproar, but Evans got the floor and stated that this was the point which was to be fought. He made a lengthy speech in favor of a straightout Republican ticket, and contended that if the Republicans held together they would have the state in four years. He said:

He then warned them not to at ing tobacco.

man amounced that he was in deubt and ordered a call of the roll. Delegates were ordered to seat themselves according to senatorial districts. The roll was called, the question being to refer the resolutions. The result was ayes, 104; nays, 279. The vote shows the PEEPONDERANCE OF THE JONES ELECTRIC THE MILE THE REPONDERANCE OF THE JONES ELECTRIC THE motion to adopt the address was withdrawn and quiet again reigned. The report of the committee on platform was then heard, they having finished their deliberation.

To the Hon, A. J. Rosenthal, chairman of the state Republican convention: Your committee beg leave to report the following as their action upon the resolutions submitted to their consideration: To the resolution submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating a submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating a submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating a submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating as a submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating as a submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating as a submitted to their consideration: To the resolution against nominating as a submitted to their consideration.

This is the second convention we have been forced to come to this year, and this is a had year, too. Bixty-three counties are not represented."

On motion, the convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

It was after three o'clock when the convention was again called to order, when the discussion on the minority and majority reports was resumed. The majority report was adopted by an overwhelming majority. When the result was announced the delegations from Dallas, Johnson, Runnels, Howard, Baylor, Wichita, Wheeler, Rockwall and Grays m counties withdrew from the convention and held a this morning. The Grimes county contest was settled by admitting the straight-outs and squezzing out.

In the afternoon session the nomination of a candidate for congress from the Sixth congressional district was made without reference to counties. It. P. Teague of Kanfman county made a telling speech, eulogizing the past record of our gifted Olin Wellbern and closed his remarks by presenting the name of Mr. Wellbern for nomination. Following Mr. Teague, Mr. T. T. D. Andrews, a talented young lawyer of Fort Worth, made one of the most brilliant speeches it has ever been our pleasure to testify to on a similar occasion. On motion the Hon. Olin Wellborn was nominated by a unanimous vote of the nominated by a unanimous vote of the following counties:

born was presented to the convention, opening in one of the finest speeches ever made in this section, arraigning the Republican party with the crimes and misdemeanors of the present administration. Those present who have in times past strayed into Greenbackism on national questions listened to these restatements of grand old Democratic doctrines with intense interest, and realizing that the principles in which Democracy is grounded touches all Democracy is grounded touches all alike, and that they are co-existent with time and right, will not fall to see where their ballot will do the most good for the people.

On motion the convention adjourned
